Drew, I was under the impression that you were going to withdraw your motion for sanctions after my client provided the hard drives. I was unaware that you were still waiting on supplemental answers to interrogatories. Is that still the case or do you have everything now?

Joe, we are waiting for supplemental responses as outlined in the October letter, and again in the motion. And the sanctions piece was for the cost of Mr. Bordley's no-show, not the related to the supplemental responses.

The sanctions cost is outrageous—no vendor can get away with charging that much to just show up for a "house call." Had I known you weren't going to withdraw the motion I would have filed an opposition. Now I have to file a motion for reconsideration.
